Reading/Studying

- Chapters 9 and 10
- Any Notes Provided

Discussion:

Describe Piaget's Formal Operational Stage. How do the characteristics of this stage affect teens' behaviors and decision making skills. Give a personal example of yourself in this stage. How does your example relate to Piaget's theory. How would recommend parents interact with this age group?

Assignment 2

Intervention for Aggressive Children

Learning Goal: Identify changes in peer relationships in middle and late childhood.

Learning Goal: Characterize contemporary approaches to student learning and sociocultural aspects of schooling and achievement.

Instructions: The purpose of this activity is for students to design an intervention program for aggressive children, using Crick and Dodge's (1994) steps for processing social situations, to process a social interaction more effectively. Make up an intervention to teach a child to perform the six steps.

See page 238-239 (Santrock, 3rd edition) and the handout in this module for the steps.
